UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

10 VALVE CORPORATION,
11 Plaintiff,
12 v.
13 THOMAS ABBRUZZESE, et al.,
14 Defendants.

Case No. 2:24-cv-1717-JNW

DECLARATION OF WILL BUCHER IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANTS' OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

15 I, Will Bucher, state under the penalty of perjury:
16

17 1. I am an attorney at the Bucher Law PLLC and represent the PC
18 Gamers in the instant action. I am fully familiar with the facts set forth herein.

19 2. Following the ruling that the SSA was unenforceable by Valve
20 against the Elliott plaintiffs, Valve continued to argue in the PC Gamer's
21 arbitrations the Valid Contract remained enforceable. On September 10, 2024—
22 nearly three months after the Elliott rulings—Valve argued in the Greg Fish's
23 arbitration “The [Valid] SSA governs Valve's relationships with Claimants and is 24 enforceable.” Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of Valve's
25 submission in the Greg Fish arbitration.
26

1 3. Ten arbitrators and a former judge—Saydah, Badal, Gaglione,
 2 Gilman, Kingsley, Morrill, Goins, Jossen, Sperow, Ohashi, and Samas—have
 3 ruled that the Valid Contract controls and that Valve’s attempted rewrite is
 4 ineffective. Attached hereto as Exhibit B are true and correct copies of orders
 5 confirming these rulings.

7 4. Based on my review of the purchase histories available in the PC
 8 Gamers’ arbitrations, the PC Gamers have typically spent more than $3,000 on 9 their Valve PC games, which they would forfeit if they deleted their account. The 10 average award for prevailing PC Gamers, which awards only a fraction of the PC
 11 Gamers total spending, suggests this amount might even be a low-end estimate.

13 5. Valve filed a nearly identical motion in December 2023 in all of the PC Gamers
 14 claims seeking sanctions, fee-shifting, and dismissal of the PC Gamers claims. Valve did not
 15 prevail in a single one of its December 2023 motions to dismiss.

16 6. In arbitration, Valve has argued that American Pipe tolling does not
 17 work to preserve the claims of the PC Gamers. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a
 18 true and correct copy of the Gilman briefing making these arguments.

20 7. At the time of this affidavit’s signing, more than a dozen PC Gamers
 21 Valve hailed before this Court have already completed their final merits hearings
 22 and are awaiting final arbitral decisions.

24 8. At least a half a dozen arbitrators, adjudicating the claims of 25 hundreds of PC Gamers, have trials scheduled for dates during the next six 26 months.

1 9. Arbitrator Rubin was assigned to adjudicate Mr. Wirth's claim and by
 2 September 2024 had scheduled a hearing to resolve the parties' information exchange disputes
 3 and set a trial date. But unlike many other arbitrators, Arbitrator Rubin granted Valve's
 4 request for a stay when it filed this action last year. Arbitrator Rubin passed away in August of 5 2025, placing Mr. Wirth's claim in limbo.

6 10. No award in favor of a PC Gamer to date has been for any less than $750,000.
 7 This figure includes the mandatory treble damages, fees, and costs but excludes
 8 the substantial additional interest, collection costs, and litigation expenses
 9 necessary to enforce those awards.

10 11. Attached are true and correct copies of the following documents or 12 records:
